Andrew Metcalfe, EY Engagement Partner

Brief description for iTunes:

Today's guest has a very distinguished career in the Australian Public Service. Andrew Metcalf has made a wonderful reputation for himself and is highly admired by bureaucrats, business people and the community across Australia.

Bio

Andrew has recently been appointed to EY following an extensive career at the highest levels of the Australian Government in borders and central agencies. He has extensive policy experience in often contentious areas, as well as in the delivery of client services on a national and global scale.

Andrew was the Secretary of the Australian Department of Immigration for 7 years, and he also was the Secretary of the Department of Agriculture and Australia's Director of Quarantine. He was involved in all aspects of strategy, policy, governance and provision of client services to the more than 30,000,000 people who cross Australia's borders each year.
